

I benefit from getting my traffic and weather from satellite radio daily. I commute to work everyday for over 100 miles in one direction over mountainous turf. Because of my distance I like to get my information straight and not with a lot useless commercials and drop out things that I don't have to worry about with xm.It' the programming that I like.